PERSONAL PROJECTS

PORTFOLIO using HTML,CSS and Bookstrap

- Created a personal resume website using HTML, CSS, and Bootstrap. This project showcased my web design skills and included sections such as About Me, Education, Projects, and Contact Information.

Diet Recommendation System

- Developed a system that calculates Body Mass Index (BMI) and provides personalized diet recommendations based on individual physical goals.

E-commerce Website

- Built an online shopping platform using HTML, CSS, and Bootstrap. The website featured product listings, a shopping cart, and a checkout system. This project demonstrated my ability to create user-friendly and visually appealing web interface

E-commerce Database

- Designed and implemented a database for an e-commerce website using SQL. The project included creating an ER diagram to illustrate the database structure and relationships between different entities. This database supported the backend operations of the e-commerce platform, such as inventory management and order processing.
